Natcha Surampai is a trainee at Chun & Chun Law. In 2021, during her 9-month internship at our firm, Natcha has proven herself an excellent member to our team, through her assistance in legal research and document reviews in pre-litigation process, including case preparation in various matters. Currently, Natcha has decided to gain further legal experience with our litigation team in parallel with her pursuit for her Thai lawyer license.

Natcha acquired her Bachelor of Law from Chulalongkorn University (LL.B.) in 2022. Natcha has also taken an interest in launching her own Pro Bono project, acting as a language interpreter, to assist foreigners with criminal reports and complaints at the Lumpini Police Station in 2020.
