

CHUN & CHUN

L A W

Nattaphat ("Fred") Chayinn
E nattaphat.c@chunlawbkk.com
Associate

Fred Chayinn is an associate and translator at Chun & Chun Law. Before joining Chun & Chun Law, Fred completed a transformative 6-month internship program focused on litigation practice at a local law firm and later joined Chun & Chun Law as a trainee since November 2023 until he acquired his lawyer license. This hands-on experience gave him proficiency in various legal practices, including document preparation, legal research, and translation across various legal matters. Fred is a versatile professional who provides invaluable assistance in pre-litigation processes and court trials, handling diverse civil, criminal, and labor cases, making him undoubtedly an essential part of the team. Notably, his experience encompasses consumer and labor cases, showcasing his adaptability in navigating complex legal landscapes.

Fred is a distinguished graduate, having obtained his Bachelor of Law degree from Chulalongkorn University with Second-Class Honors in 2022. This academic achievement reflects his dedication to excellence and serves as a solid foundation for his burgeoning legal career.

Fred acquired his lawyer license in 2024 and has chosen to enhance his legal experience and skills by joining our litigation team as an associate while concurrently pursuing his goal to the Thai Bar.

General Practice Highlights:

- Performed Thai-English translation of documents for trial exhibits in various contested proceedings.
- Conducted legal research on civil, criminal, and labor cases, focusing on Supreme Court precedents.
- Assisted in the preparation of legal documents such as complaints, answers, counterclaims, and other court petitions.

- Assisted in pre-litigation dispute resolution and other reconciliation processes, mostly in Labor and consumer cases.
- Conducted legal research and prepared materials for Hague Abduction Convention case in pre-litigation and litigation process.
- Coordinating with the Court and other Government Agencies such as the Department of Lands, and District office, etc.
- Reviewed contracts such as prenuptial agreements, divorce agreements, settlement agreements.
- Involved in the process of making will and testament for the client.

Labor Law Practice Highlights:

- Conducted legal research regarding labor-related issues and labor case proceedings, focused on the judgement of precedent cases from the Supreme Court.
- Provide legal opinions and pieces of advice for the unfairly dismissed employees.
- Assisted in a labor matter concerning unfair termination by drafting the complaints and preparing materials for litigation, including case-related petitions.
- Assisted in the process of labor dispute reconciliation.
- Involved in labor case in-court trial and acted as a second chair.

Family Law Practice Highlights:

- Assisted in divorce and child custody cases by conducting legal research, and preparing materials for pre-litigation and litigation process.
- Assisted in Hague Child Abduction Convention case by conducting legal research, and preparing materials for pre-litigation and litigation process.
- Reviewed contracts such as prenuptial agreements, divorce agreements, settlement agreements.
- Provide legal opinions for clients.

Criminal Law Practice Highlights:

- Assisted in the team of Lawyers for Human Rights regarding political protesters' case and acted as a second chair during the in-court trial.
- Provide legal opinions for the accused defendants.

Professional Qualifications:

- 2024, Lawyer License

Membership in Professional Association:

- 2024, Lawyers Council of Thailand
- 2023, Member of Thai Bar Association

Languages:

Thai, English

Chun & Chun Law

P.B. Court Building, Ground Floor, 42 Soi Ngamduplee (Soi Goethe) Rama 4 Rd.,
Sathorn, Bangkok 10120, Thailand
www.chunlawbkk.com