Associate

Savita Wasinpattamacaht is an Associate at Chun & Chun Law. Prior to joining the firm, she was an intern at a regional law firm where she was part of the Corporate and Commercial department. She began working as a Trainee at Chun & Chun Law in February 2025, focusing on litigation practice across various areas.

Throughout her time at the firms, she has gained experience in diverse areas of legal work, including meticulous document preparation, accurate legal translation, in-depth legal research, and effective communication with courts and external agencies. Her consistent performance and dedication have made her a valuable member of the team. She is known for her versatility and flexibility in handling different types of legal matters. While she has a particular interest in family law, she also supports work related to corporate law, labor law, and criminal law.

Savita graduated from the Faculty of Law, Chulalongkorn University, with Second-Class Honors in 2024. During her studies, she developed a strong interest in subjects related to dispute resolution and actively participated in a wide range of academic and extracurricular activities. These experiences have played a crucial role in shaping her into a well-rounded legal professional who is committed to helping clients achieve their legal objectives efficiently and effectively.

Practice Highlights:

- Assisted clients in Hague child abduction cases from the pre-litigation stage (e.g., gathering evidence and translating documents for filing with the Thai court), through the filing stage (e.g., coordinating with court officials and submitting petitions, complaints, or other relevant documents), and following up on the progress of the case.
- Assisted in a labor matter concerning unfair termination by translating various documents such as the Complaint, Answer, Counterclaim, and Answer to the Counterclaim.
- Assisted in a pro bono matter concerning a civil claim for damages in a tort case by contacting the court to submit court documents and following up on the progress of the case.
- Assisted in an eviction lawsuit by attending the process of land surveying and coordinating with land officials.
- Assisted in a lawyer ethics case by contacting the Lawyers Council to submit the Complaint and regularly following up on the case progress.
- Assisted in inheritance cases by conducting legal research on various aspects, such as the appointment of an estate administrator, the order of heirs entitled to inherit, and adopted children, as well as drafting legal advice.
- Conducted legal research on business law in relation to limited companies, such as the powers and duties of directors and the rights of shareholders.
- Conducted legal research on criminal cases involving various offenses, such as embezzlement or theft in a dwelling.
