Associate

Savita Wasinpattamachat is currently an Associate at Chun & Chun Law. Prior to joining the firm, she gained experience at a leading regional law firm, where she was part of the Corporate and Commercial Department and worked on corporate law matters. She subsequently joined Chun & Chun Law in February 2025, shifting her practice focus to litigation across various areas, with a primary focus on family law, including marriage, divorce, maintenance, child custody, and parental rights-related matters, as well as succession law.

Throughout her time at the firms, she has gained experience in diverse areas of legal work, including case preparation, such as drafting legal documents, preparing and organizing evidence, conducting legal research, and translating documents. She has also been involved in various support roles, including serving as an English interpreter, liaising with officials of relevant organizations, and undertaking on-site work in connection with legal proceedings. Her consistent performance and dedication have made her a valuable member of the team. She is known for her versatility and flexibility in handling different types of legal matters. While she has a particular interest in family law, she also supports work related to corporate law, labor law, and criminal law.

Savita graduated from the Faculty of Law, Chulalongkorn University, with Second-Class Honors in 2024. During her studies, she developed a strong interest in subjects related to dispute resolution and actively participated in a wide range of academic and extracurricular activities. These experiences have played a crucial role in shaping her into a well-rounded legal professional who is committed to helping clients achieve their legal objectives efficiently and effectively.

Practice Highlights:

- Handled pre-litigation mediation cases concerning divorce, division of assets, and child custody, from liaising with the opposing party to explore possible solutions through to court mediation, providing clients with an alternative dispute resolution option to avoid formal court proceedings.
- Assisted in Hague child abduction cases from the pre-litigation stage through the conclusion of proceedings, including gathering evidence, preparing pleadings and other relevant documents, coordinating with court officials, and assisting with the return of the child to the left-behind parent.
- Assisted in a legal ethics case by liaising with the Lawyers Council to handle the matter and preparing relevant documents, from the commencement of the case through to the closing statement.
- Assisted in inheritance cases, including matters relating to wills, the appointment of estate administrators, the heirs entitled to inherit, and adopted children, involving legal research, liaising with relevant officials, preparing documents, and handling court-related procedures, as well as drafting legal opinions.
- Handled a marital misconduct case by conducting online and on-site investigations to gather critical evidence.
- Served as an English interpreter in and out of court, facilitating effective communication and representing the interests of English-speaking clients.
- Assisted in a labor matter concerning unfair termination by preparing various documents such as the Complaint, Answer, Counterclaim, and Answer to the Counterclaim.
- Assisted in a pro bono case concerning a civil claim for damages in a tort case by supporting court procedures and following up on the progress of the case.
- Assisted in an eviction lawsuit by attending the process of land surveying and coordinating with land officials.
- Conducted legal research across various areas of law, with a particular focus on family law, as well as corporate law, labor law, and criminal law.
